What’s happening Week 2?

Interested in Studying Abroad?
The new initiative, Study Abroad Month, led by the UCLA International Education Office, aims to raise awareness about UCLA’s study abroad programs and inspire students to take the big plunge! Events include the Study Abroad Fair and workshops about financing your trip abroad. Events are scheduled from October 9 to November 9. For a list of all the events, visit http://ieo.ucla.edu/events/studyabroadmonth. To RSVP for Study Abroad Month, visit the IEO website or the events page on MyUCLA.

Breaking the Silence on Hooking Up
The UCLA Center for the Study of Women presents Breaking the Silence on Hooking Up, a facilitated conversation with Lisa Wade (author of American Hookup: The New Culture of Sex on Campus) and Victoria Marks (co-creator of Unhooked, a UCLA documentary on hookup culture). The event will take place Tuesday, October 24 at 4 pm in Kerckhoff Grand Salon. RSVP online at csw.ucla.edu/hookup.

Career Engagement Pop Ups
The Career Center will be hosting pop up locations all throughout campus to help students learn more about the services offered by the Career Center through 1:1 advising. At the Career Engagement Pop Ups, students can have their resumes and cover letters reviewed as well as gain job and internship search strategies. For resume and cover letter review, please bring printed copies of all documents. To see the dates and locations for each of the pop up locations, visit http://www.career.ucla.edu/Career-Counseling-Appts-Drop-In-Hours.

Want to Learn More about Financing Grad School?
The Graduate Mentoring and Research Programs office will be hosting a “How to Fund Grad School” workshop on Wednesday, October 11th from 5-7pm in Campbell Hall 1224 for undergraduate students interested in learning more about funding opportunities for grad school. We will have a guest speaker present from the graduate division to discuss fellowships, grants, teaching assistantships and more. Students can RSVP via MyUCLA by using this link: How to Fund Grad School.

Academic and Tutoring Resources

Are you in a challenging class? Are you interested in supplementing your classes with tutoring or peer learning sessions? Look no further because CAC has a list of tutoring and academic resources so that you can make the most of your academic experience!

Life Science Core Peer Learning Center
Staffed by Peer Learning Facilitators, the Life Science Core Peer Learning Center offers free learning support aimed at developing academic skills, critical thinking, and independent learning. PLF sessions are offered for each of the LS core classes. To sign up for a PLF session or to learn more, visit https://www.lscore.ucla.edu/ls-core-peer-learning/.

Student Math Center
The Student Math Center offers group study and tutorials for lower division math courses. The Center additionally offers help for specific math courses every hour, but students can also drop by for help with any lower division math course. For more information, visit www.math.ucla.edu/ugrad/smc

Student Retention Center Test Bank
Students can access old graded quizzes, exams, and essays for UCLA courses that students who previously took the course submit to the SRC Test Bank. Most courses do have old files but some do not, as departments may restrict their access. To gain access to exam files, you must share an old graded quiz, exam, or essay from a class that you took at UCLA. Students in their first quarter at UCLA will be granted access for their first registered quarter without needing to submit a graded quiz, exam, or essay. You must schedule a same-day, five-minute appointment at the Students Activities Center, Suite 105 to access the files. To learn more about the test bank, visit www.cpo.ucla.edu/src.

Writing Success Program
WSP offers 1-on-1 writing and creativity counseling appointments. WSP prefers to work with students who are at the beginning of their writing process for a particular paper. WSP does not provide proofreading services. Daily drop-in hours for WSP are available at the Student Activities Center in Suite 105. For more information, visit www.cpo.ucla.edu/src/writing-success-program/

Chemistry Tutors
For students who desire 1-on-1 tutoring for Chemistry, the undergraduate office compiles a list of graduate students who are willing to tutor college students. The list includes their contact information and the specific subjects they would be willing to teach. These tutoring services are not free and the tutor will set his/her own rates. Please contact graduate students on this list individually for tutoring costs and availability. Quarterly tutoring lists can be located at 4006 Young Hall or on the Chemistry and Biochemistry webpage at http://chemistry.ucla.edu/undergraduate.

CONDUITS

Are you looking for hidden campus gems to enhance your time at UCLA? Look no further! Every week Conduits will feature a campus resource, selected by our very own ASK Peer Counselors, that will help you maximize your academic and social experience at UCLA.

If you’re having any trouble with your computer, look no further than the Student Technology Center! Located on the Hill in Covel Commons, Room L-06, STC staff members have been trained to assist in-person and over the phone with computer troubleshooting and repair as well as residential network and cable TV support; no appointment necessary! Although they are located on the Hill, their services are available to all students. This space also comes equipped with several computers, free of use, and printing, copying, faxing, and scanning are available for a small per-page fee. For more information about their services and hours, visit their website at https://housing.ucla.edu/residence-hall-computing or email them at techctr@ha.ucla.edu
